

WORSHIP

The First Lesson

The first reading from Scripture is usually from the Old Testament. This part of the Bible contains the story of the Israelites, whom God chose for His own people and from whom He raised up a Savior. The exception to this is the Easter season when this reading is from the Book of Acts.

Most often, the Old Testament reflects the Gospel reading for the day. This is possible because the life of Jesus often parallels the Old Testament.

Source:

...Meaningful Worship – CPH